HARPER'S WEEKLY SHOWS UP HEARST AS A MALICIOUS FAKER OF NEWS

*Story of a New York Reporter Who Threw Up His Hearst
Job Rather Than Stand for Hearst Fakery—Why
Roscoe C. Mitchell Refused to Be
"Good Soldier" for Hearst.*

BY N. D. COCHRAN

Harper's Weekly printed a big news story last week, a story of vital interest to millions of people in this country—yet I haven't seen the news of that news story given to the public by any of the newspapers.

The story shows how Hearst fakes news, colors it, suppresses it and deliberately manufacture it to serve his own selfish purposes—or those who are back of him in his vicious campaign against President Wilson and Secretary Bryan.

It is a story of a reporter for Hearst's New York American, who resigned when Hearst's paper colored his dispatches from Niagara concerning the news of the Mexican mediators, and manufactured news in the Hearst New York office and inserted it in telegraphic news sent from Niagara by this reporter.
